"HELLO BILL"

In the engagement at the Opera-house, matinee at 2:30 and tonight at 8:30, promises local amusement lovers one of the greatest treats of the season in "Hello Bill." For the benefit of those who do not know what "Hello Bill" is, the plot tells of the adventures, or rather misadventures, of one William Fuller, who on the eve of his marriage is caught in a raid on a gambling house and finds 60 days in Jail staring him in the face. How to explain to his bride-to-be why he must leave her at the altar and absent himself for two months, is a pretty hard nut for the luckless "Bill" to crack, and the manner in which he solves the problem keeps the audience shrieking with unrestrained merriment for nearly 3 hours. The company presenting this merry play this season is said to be one of exceptional strength, Harry Blakemore being especially engaged to assume the leading comedy roles of William Fuller this season. Matinee prices 10 cents for children and 25 cents for adults. Tickets on sale at Ray's.

Colds Cause Pneumonia.

One of the most remarkable cases of a cold, deep seated on the lungs, causing pneumonia, is that of Mrs. Gertrude E. Penner, Marion, Ind., who was entirely cured by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. She says: "The coughing and straining so weakened me that I ran down in weight from 148 to 92 pounds. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength. Sold by J. Jas. Wood & Son, Druggists."

Wakeful Children.

For a long time the two-year-old child of Mr. P. L. McPherson, 56 N. Tenth street, Harrisburg, Pa., would sleep but two or three hours in the early part of the night, which made it very hard for her parents. Her mother concluded that the child had stomach trouble, and gave her half of one of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, which quieted her stomach and she slept the whole night through. Two boxes of these Tablets have effected a permanent cure and she is now well and strong. For sale by J. Jas. Wood & Son.
